Head Teacher: Mr C Jeffery B.A (Hons)

1st July 2020

Dear Parents/Carers

We have been making plans for September as best we can. This is presuming that we are back to normal which I very much hope that we are, as long as it is safe to do so.

I am very conscious of the fact that if children don't know who their teacher is for next year this will inevitably cause them significant stress and anxiety during the school holidays. The Department for Education states that schools can now open to children from any year group as long as it is safe to do so. At Chase Lane we are able to achieve this on a rotational basis.

We would therefore like to invite every child in for two sessions to meet with their new teacher before the end of term. In the week starting on Monday 13th July to the Friday 17th July your child is invited to attend the morning/afternoon sessions on the days shown overleaf. I must point out that attendance is not compulsory but I do thoroughly recommend it for the children's mental well-being.

The vulnerable group and key worker children provision will continue every day. If your child attends this group during the transition week they will not be permitted to attend their new class sessions. This is due to the fact that we will be operating as bubbles and children cannot move from one to another.

If your child is currently in the vulnerable/keyworker provision and you would like them to meet their new teacher for September, you must keep them off school for the final week and they can only attend the two half day sessions as on the attached timetable.

Kind regards

Mr Jeffery
